Paris, 4 July 2005 – JCDecaux SA (Euronext Paris: DEC) has received a decision of the "Conseil de la Concurrence" (French Competition Council) with respect to contractual clauses in its French contracts.

The Council imposed fines on several French companies in the JCDecaux Group, which aggregate €10 million.

This decision follows a 1998 ruling which required the Group to amend its renewal clauses in its French contracts relating to the street furniture sector.

At that time no fine was imposed.

The Group believes that it has complied with this ruling since 1998, and that all of its contracts are consistent with all competition rules and regulations.

JCDecaux will appeal the decision.
